

gpibs

an interdisciplinary approach to graduate education

The GPiBS application, general admissions information, and short descriptions of each component of the application can be found at:

<http://graduate.ouhsc.edu/GraduatePrograms/PhDPrograms/GraduatePrograminBiomedicalSciences/Admissions.aspx>

- 1: Go to the website above and click “Apply Here”.
- 2: Click “Create Account”
- 3: Complete all required “Account Profile” fields to Create your Account.
- 4: Click “Start Your Application”
- 5: Login with your email address and password used to create your account.
- 6: Click “Start a new application”
- 7: Complete all required “Personal Information” fields and click “Save and Continue”
- 8: Follow the steps under “Programs Using Apply OUHSC” to submit official transcripts.
- 9: Complete all required “Education and Residency” fields and click “Save and Continue”. (Ensure that every institution is listed for each submitted transcript. Use the “Search” to find the High School and University codes)
- 10: Complete all required “Admission Information” fields.
 - Select “Graduate College” as the College.
 - Select “Graduate Medicine - Graduate Program in Biomedical Science (1200U)” as the Program.
- 11: Upload your personal statement, CV, and provide the number of months of full-time research experience with a short description of that experience or experiences. Click “Save and Continue”.
- 12: Complete all required “Reference Information” fields and click “Save and Continue”.
- 13: Complete all required “Affirmation” fields and click “Save and Continue”.
- 14: Click continue and input your credit card information to complete the payment of $0 for submission of your application fee. You will be charged $0 for your application.